1 I. INTRODUCTION

2 Plaintiff Gregory Franklin (“Mr. Franklin” or “Plaintiff”) seeks final approval of the 3 proposed class action settlement with Defendant Ocwen Loan Servicing, LLC (“Ocwen” or 4 “Defendant”) memorialized in the Settlement Agreement (“Agreement” or “Agr.”) and its 5 Addendum. Plaintiff submits this Memorandum in Support of Motion for Final Approval of Class
 6 Action Settlement (“Final Approval Motion”), the Declaration of Gregory Franklin (“Franklin 7 Decl.”), the Declaration of Amy Lechner (“Admin. Decl.”), and the accompanying declarations 8 of Class Counsel—i.e., Declaration of Abbas Kazerounian (“Kazeronian Decl.”), Declaration of 9 Jason A. Ibey (“Ibey Decl.”), and Declaration of Ryan L. McBride (“McBride Decl.”)—in support 10 thereof.

11 This settlement is the culmination of over four years of litigation and provides for 12 significant monetary relief. The Settlement Agreement (filed at Dkt. No. 154-3,<sup>2</sup> and the 13 Addendum filed at Dkt. No. 154-4, Exhibit 2), reached after two separate mediation sessions 14 before Hunter R. Hughes of Hunter ADR and a mediator’s proposal, calls for a $1,500,000.00 15 common settlement fund (the “Settlement Fund”) that will provide significant financial benefits 16 to estimated 37,031 Settlement Class Members in California whose cellular telephone 17 conversations on at least one outgoing call from Defendant was recorded by Defendant and/or its 18 agent(s), allegedly without consent within the applicable Class Period (i.e., November 1, 2015 19 and November 30, 2015), in purported violation of California’s Invasion of Privacy Act, Cal. Pen.
 20 Code § 630, et seq. (“CIPA”).

21 The Settlement Fund is an all-in, non-reversionary fund (see Agr. §§ 4.1, 4.1.6), with the 22 Settlement Class receiving a monetary payment on a pro rata basis (id. § 4.1.4). The Settlement 23 Class Members were afforded a reasonable opportunity to submit a Claim Form online through 24 the Settlement Website (www.FranklinRecordingSettlement.com<sup>3</sup>) or by mail to the 25 Administrator. Id. § 7.1(a)-(b). The approximately 37,031 Settlement Class Members were 26

27 <sup>2</sup> Defined terms are used as defined in the Settlement Agreement.

28 <sup>3</sup> The Parties previously addressed the Court’s inquiry concerning two letters received by the Court from anonymous individuals concerning the Settlement Website. Dkt. No. 163.

1 informed of the Settlement by Mail Notice, Publication Notice, and detailed notice posted on the 2 Settlement Website, after the Administrator received Settlement Class Members' last known 3 addresses from Defendant (id. § 6.1) and performed a search on the National Change of Address 4 database ("NCOA") to ensure that the most current addresses were being used (id. § 6.1.1).

5 As of July 15, 2022, after subtracting the requested combined award of attorneys' fees and 6 costs (i.e., $499,995), the requested Service Award to Plaintiff (i.e., $3,000), and the estimated 7 notice and administrative expenses from the Settlement Fund (i.e., $47,797.11), each of the 8 currently 3,518 valid claims will be entitled to a settlement check of approximately $269.81. As 9 the claim form review process is ongoing, Plaintiff intends to provide updated figures at the time 10 of the Fairness Hearing. Also, as of July 15, 2022, no Settlement Class Member requested 11 exclusion from the Settlement, and there are no objections to the Settlement.

12 As explained more thoroughly below, this settlement is fair, reasonable and adequate.
 13 Therefore, the settlement should be given final approval.

14 II. BRIEF PROCEDURAL HISTORY SINCE PRELIMINARY APPROVAL

15 The Court granted preliminary approval of the proposed class action settlement on March 16 9, 2022. Dkt. No. 157 (the "Preliminary Approval Order"). Class Notice was subsequently 17 provided to all Settlement Class Members on April 15, 2022. Admin Decl., ¶ 7. Settlement Class 18 Members were afforded until June 14, 2022, to submit a Claim Form (Dkt. No. 157, ¶ 19) and 19 until June 24, 2022, to submit any objections or requests for exclusion from the Settlement (id.).
 20 Admin Decl., ¶ 13.

21 On May 25, 2022, Plaintiff timely filed the Motion for Attorneys' Fees, Costs and Service 22 Award (the "Fee Brief"), pursuant to the terms of the Settlement Agreement (Agr. § 3.3.1.6) and 23 the Court's Preliminary Approval Order (Dkt. No. 157, ¶ 19). The Fee Brief was promptly posted 24 on the Settlement Website the same day it was filed by Plaintiff. Admin Decl. ¶ 12.

25 Plaintiff now submits this timely Motion for Final Approval of Class Action Settlement.
 26 Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e), Plaintiff seeks final certification and approval of the proposed 27 class action settlement. Plaintiff specifically requests that the Court enter the proposed Final 28 Approval Order as well as proposed Final Judgment pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 58(a), submitted 1 herewith.

2 III. THE INVASION OF PRIVACY ACT AND CLASS ALLEGATIONS

3 The California State Legislature passed the California Invasion of Privacy Act (“CIPA”) in 1967 to protect the privacy of Californians, replacing prior laws which permitted the recording of telephone conversations with the consent of one party to the conversation. Cal. Pen. Code § 632.7 was added to CIPA in 1992 due to specific privacy concerns over the increased use of cellular and cordless telephones. Section 632.7 prohibited intentionally recording all communications involving cellular and cordless telephones, without regard to whether they constitute confidential communications. Plaintiff alleges that Defendant violated CIPA, specifically Cal. Pen. Code § 632.7, by contacting Plaintiff and the Settlement Class on their cellular telephones and audio recording the conversations without their knowledge or consent. See First Amended Complaint (“FAC”), Dkt. No. 18, ¶ 33. In compensation for these alleged violations of CIPA, Plaintiff sought statutory damages of $5,000.00 for each violation, pursuant to Cal. Pen. Code § 632.7(a). FAC, ¶¶ 58, Prayer for Relief.

15 IV. SETTLEMENT

16 In an earnest attempt to settle this action and avoid the delays and risks inherent in proceeding to trial, the Parties discussed settlement on several occasions. As noted in the Preliminary Approval Motion, the Settlement Agreement resulted from extensive arm’s length negotiations, including two separate private mediation sessions before Hunter R. Hughes of Hunter ADR, on August 27, 2019, and September 7, 2021, respectively; follow-up negotiations; and a mediator’s proposal. [Dkt. No. 154-1, pp. 11-12; Kazerounian Decl., ¶ 7.] The Parties also conducted substantial discovery, including multiple rounds of formal written discovery (e.g., five sets of requests for production of documents and four sets of special interrogatories), Plaintiff’s deposition, seven separate depositions of Defendant’s personnel, two subpoenas, and confirmatory discovery following the Parties’ September 7, 2021, mediation session (i.e., Defendant’s confirmatory declaration as to the class size and the process used to identify Settlement Class Members). [Ibey Decl., ¶ 7.] Additionally, as noted in the Preliminary Approval Motion, Class Counsel have vigorously litigated this matter since its inception, overcoming, in

1 part, a motion to dismiss, motion for judgment on the pleadings, and filing and arguing an opposed 2 motion for class certification. Dkt. No. 154-1, pp. 23-24.

3 The significant time and effort spent on litigation, discovery, and settlement negotiations, 4 as well as the time spent in mediation with an experienced mediator, militate in favor of final 5 approval of the proposed settlement, as such factors indicate that there was no collusion among 6 the Parties. This action has been ongoing since June 5, 2018, and the efforts of Class Counsel to 7 reach a compromise in the form of a proposed class settlement proved fruitful, resulting in a 8 mutual understanding, the terms of which are memorialized in the Agreement and the later 9 Addendum thereto.

10 A. The Final Approval Hearing

11 At the Final Approval Hearing scheduled for August 26, 2022, the Court will consider the 12 Fee Brief (Dkt. No. 158-1) and determine whether to finally approve the Settlement. Agr. § 2.21; 13 Dkt. No. 157, ¶ 7.

14 B. Attorneys' Fees, Costs, and Service Award

15 As explained in the Fee Brief, Class Counsel seek $499,995.00 in combined attorneys' 16 fees and expenses ($55,018.45 in costs and $444,976.55 in attorneys' fees), representing 17 approximately 33% of the $1,500,000.00 Settlement Fund. Dkt. No. 158-1, pp. 21, 37; Agr. §
18 14.1. Class Counsel also seek a Service Award for Plaintiff of $3,000.00 from the Settlement 19 Fund. Dkt. No. 158-1, pp. 36-37; Agr. § 14.3. Plaintiff, therefore, respectfully requests that the 20 Court enter the proposed Final Approval Order submitted herewith, which includes a provision 21 for the requested attorneys' fees, costs, Service Award, and notice as well as reasonable settlement 22 notice and administration expenses.

23 C. The Terms of the Settlement Agreement

24 This action has been preliminarily certified, for settlement purposes only, as a California 25 class action, providing for a $1,500,000.00 Settlement Fund. See Dkt. No. 157.

26 1. Preliminary Certification of a Rule 23(b)(3) Settlement Class

27 The Settlement Class is defined as:

28 All persons whose cellular telephone conversation on at least one

1 outgoing call from Defendant was recorded by Defendant and/or its 2 agent/s without that person's consent within the Class Period
 3 [beginning November 1, 2015 and ending November 30, 2015, 4 inclusive].

5 Excluded from the Class are: (1) individuals who are or were during 6 the Class Period officers or directors of Defendant in the Litigation 7 or any of its respective Affiliates; (ii) the District Judge and any 8 Magistrate Judge assigned to this case, their spouses, and persons 9 within the third degree of relationship to either of them, or the 10 spouses of such persons; and (iii) all persons who file a timely and 11 proper request to be excluded from the class.

12 Agr. §§ 3.1(a), 3.2.

13 2. The $1.5 Million Settlement Fund

14 The Settlement Agreement establishes a $1,500,000.00 Settlement Fund paid by Defendant 15 to resolve the claims at issue in this action. See Agr. § 4.1. Payments from the Settlement Fund are 16 in the form of a pro rata settlement check, which will be mailed to each of the Settlement Class 17 Members who made a valid and timely claim. Id. § 4.1.4. The Administrator will then send the 18 settlement checks by mail no later than thirty (30) days after the Effective Date. Id. § 7.5.

19 One hundred and eighty (180) days after the checks are issued, the Administrator will void 20 any outstanding checks, calculate the amount remaining in the Settlement fund and, after reserving 21 an amount for anticipated remaining settlement administration fees or costs, make a second pro
 22 rata distribution by check for the remaining amount of the Settlement Fund to those Claimants 23 who have already cashed their initial settlement checks. Id. §§ 4.1.5, 4.1.6. The second round of 24 distributions will be made until administratively infeasible. Id. § 4.1.6. If any amount is to remain 25 in the Settlement Fund after the second round of distribution, the Administrator is to further 26 distribute that amount to a cy pres recipient(s). Id. Plaintiff recommends that the National 27 Consumer Law Center and New Media Rights be approved by the Court as the contingent cy pres 28 recipients to receive equal shares of any amount left in the Settlement fund after redistribution. Id.

V. SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATION

The Administrator's compliance with the Agreement and the Preliminary Approval Order is described below.

1           A. CAFA Notice

2           On January 7, 2022, Defendant mailed out CAFA notice, in compliance with 28 U.S.C. § 3 1715(b). Agr. § 3.3.1; Dkt. No. 147-1.

4           B. Mail Notice

5           The Administrator complied with the notice procedures set forth in the Preliminary 6 Approval Order (Dkt. No. 157) and Settlement Agreement (Agr. § 6). After having received a class 7 list from Defendant, the Administrator utilized the NCOA to update the addresses on that list 8 before mailing out 35,174 mail notices to Settlement Class Members on April 15, 2022. Admin 9 Decl. ¶ 7. The mailed notices that were sent out by the Administrator informed Settlement Class 10 Members of the Settlement Website address where they were able to obtain further information 11 about the settlement and make a claim online. Id. ¶ 4-5; see also, Dkt. No. 163-1 (Exhibit A 12 thereto). The same Mail Notice informed Settlement Class Members that they could call the 13 Settlement Administrator's toll-free telephone number to obtain information about the settlement.
14 Id. ¶ 13. Since notice was mailed out on April 15, 2022, the Administrator has recorded 5,123 mail 15 notices as returned (Id. ¶ 15). The Class Administrator is still gathering information as to the 16 number of claims that were remailed and returned undeliverable and this information will be 17 supplemented in a subsequent filing shortly. McBride Decl. ¶ 16.

18           C. Publication Notice

19           On April 14, 2022, the Administrator ran an advertisement on USA Today 20 providing additional notice to the Settlement Class. Id. ¶ 9; see also, Dkt. No. 163-1 (Exhibit B 21 thereto).

22           D. Detailed Notice on Settlement Website

23           The Administrator posted full and detailed notice on the Settlement Website, which 24 explained the case, the proposed settlement, and Class Members' options regarding the proposed 25 settlement. Id. ¶ 11. Among other things, the Settlement Website contains a copy of the Settlement 26 Agreement, the Preliminary Approval Order, a downloadable claim form, and the Fee Brief. Id. ¶ 27 12; Kazerounian Decl. ¶ 11; Exhibit A thereto. The Settlement Website therefore provided notice 28 of the proposed settlement and other aspects of the settlement class notice program to Settlement

1 Class Members. As of July 22, 2022, there were 4,369 unique visits to the Settlement Website 2 with 11,238 page views. Admin Decl. ¶ 11.

3 E. Toll-Free Phone Number

4 On April 4, 2022, the Administrator established a toll-free telephone number Settlement 5 Class Members were able to call to ask a live operator questions about the settlement. Admin.
6 Decl. ¶ 13.

7 F. Claims Procedure, Including Expenses, and Claims Received

8 The Administrator prepared a class list based on records obtained from Defendant. Id. ¶¶ 9 6-7. Settlement Class members were then given sixty (60) days after Class Notice (“Claim 10 Deadline”) was sent to make a claim for a settlement check. Id. ¶ 18; Agr. § 2.7.

11 The procedure for submitting a claim was made as easy as possible. A Claim Form could 12 be submitted either by U.S. Mail or online via the Settlement Website. Agr. § 7.1(a)-(b). All that 13 the Settlement Class Members were required to provide in submitting a valid claim was their full 14 name, current address, the cellular telephone number on which they received a call from Defendant 15 during the Class period, and a signature certifying that they are part of the Settlement Class. Id.; 16 Exhibit C to Admin Decl.

17 As of July 22, 2022, the Administrator received approximately a total of 5,123 claims form 18 (of which 1,478 were submitted by mail and 3,666 were submitted online). Admin. Decl. ¶ 15. Of 19 those claims, 3,518 are timely and valid. Id. ¶ 18. Additionally, 49 claims were late; and 1,448
20 have been determined to be ineligible due to a deficiency, illegibility or a blank submission. Id. ¶ 21 16. The 1,445 claims identified as deficient were sent a cure letter and afforded 15 days to respond.
22 Id. ¶ 17; see also, Agr. § 7.3. Of the 1,445 deficient claim forms, 288 have been cured, and there 23 are now 1,212 deficient claims remaining that will be deemed invalid. Admin Decl., ¶ 17. Given 24 that the claim form review process is ongoing, Plaintiff will provide updated figures at the time of 25 the Fairness Hearing.

26 Within thirty (30) days of the Effective Date, the Administrator is to remit the appropriate 27 Settlement Relief amounts by check to valid Claimants. Agr. § 7.5. The settlement checks will 28 eventually expire one hundred and eighty (180) days after the date of issuance. Id. § 4.1.5.

1                   1. No Objections; and No Requests for Exclusion

2                   Settlement Class Members were permitted to opt-out or submit an objection to the 3 Settlement. See Agr. at §§ 11-12; Admin. Decl. ¶ 13. As of July 19, 2022, the Administrator has 4 received zero requests for exclusion and zero objections to the Settlement. Id. at ¶ 14. Further, 5 there is no record on the Court’s docket of any objections or requests for exclusion mailed to the 6 Court. The deadline to submit a request for exclusion or object was June 24, 2022. Id. The fact that 7 there were no objections nor requests for exclusion out of the approximately 37,031 Settlement 8 Class Members is highly supportive of the proposed settlement’s adequacy. See, e.g., Garibaldi v.
 9 Bank of Am., No. 3:13-CV-02223-SI, 2015 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 182910, at *4 (N.D. Cal. Aug. 28, 10 2015) (granting final approval when, of 38,243 eligible Class members, only 21 individuals 11 requested for exclusion and 2 individuals objected) (Illston, J.); In re Diamond Foods, Inc., No. C 12 11-05386 WHA, 2014 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 3252, at *9 (N.D. Cal. Jan. 10, 2014) (“Also supporting 13 approval is the reaction of class members to the proposed class settlement. After 67,727 notices 14 were sent to potential class members, there have been only 29 requests to opt out of the class and 15 no objection to the settlement or the requested attorney’s fees and expenses.”).

16                   2. Settlement Checks

17                   The net settlement amount available to pay Settlement Class members is estimated to be 18 approximately $949,207.89, which was determined by subtracting from the Settlement Fund the 19 anticipated Service Award of $3,000.00, Class Counsel’s requested combined attorneys’ fees and 20 costs of $499,995.00<sup>4</sup> (approximately 33% of the total Settlement Fund), and estimated Notice and 21 Administrative Costs of $47,797.01. See Admin. Decl. ¶ 19. Based on the net settlement amount 22 and current valid claims totaling 3,518, each of those valid Claimant would receive a check for 23 approximately $269.81<sup>5</sup> from the Settlement Fund.

24 _____
 25 <sup>4</sup> Section 14.1 of the Agreement provides in part: “Plaintiff may apply to the Court for an award 26 of Attorneys’ Fees and Expenses from the Settlement Fund.” This is not a clear sailing provision.

27 <sup>5</sup> This is calculated as the total Settlement Fund ($1,500,000.00) minus i) attorneys’ fees and costs 28 ($499,995.00); ii) estimated Notice and Administration Costs ($47,797.11), and iii) a Service Award ($3,000.00), all divided by the total number of valid Claims (3,518).

1 Due to the risks of individually suing for statutory damages of $5,000.00 under California 2 Penal Code § 632.7, no Settlement Class Member would likely be able to obtain such recovery on 3 their own. See Ades v. Omni Hotels Mgmt. Corp., No. 2:13-cv-02468-CAS (MANx), 2014 U.S.
 4 Dist. LEXIS 129689, at *43 (C.D. Cal. Sep. 8, 2014) (“[T]he Court is not persuaded that $5,000 5 in damages is so clearly sufficient to motivate individual litigation involving complex factual and 6 legal issues as to weigh against class certification.”).

7 VI. THE SETTLEMENT SHOULD BE FINALLY APPROVED BECAUSE IT IS 8 FUNDAMENTALLY FAIR, REASONABLE, AND ADEQUATE

9 The relevant settlement factors demonstrate that the proposed settlement should be finally 10 approved as fair, reasonable, and adequate.

11 A. The Settlement Satisfies the Requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 23

12 The Court has preliminarily determined that the proposed settlement satisfies Rule 23’s 13 requirements. Dkt. No. 157, ¶ 4. Plaintiff analyzed and applied the relevant Rule 23(a) and (b) 14 factors to the class in his Motion for Preliminary Approval. See Dkt. No. 154-1, pp. 22-25. There 15 is no reason such findings should be disturbed. Since preliminary approval, Plaintiff has continued 16 to serve as an adequate Class Representative by reviewing documents and submitting declarations 17 in support of the Fee Brief and the Final Approval Motion. [See Kazerounian Decl., ¶ 8; Franklin 18 Decl., ¶ 4.] Class Counsel have also continued to adequately represent the interests of the 19 Settlement Class Members and the named Plaintiff, having, among other things, timely filed the 20 Fee Brief on May 25, 2022 (Dkt. Nos. 158, 158-1), filing a joint response to the Court’s July 8th 21 Order (Dkt. No. 163), and otherwise assisting with settlement administration (Ibey Decl., ¶ 5; 22 McBride Decl., ¶ 6). Further, the Class Notice was provided as required in the Preliminary 23 Approval Order. Admin Decl., ¶ 4.

24 B. The Settlement Should be Finally Approved by the Court

25 “Unlike the settlement of most private civil actions, class actions may be settled only with 26 the approval of the district court.” Officers for Justice v. Civil Serv. Com., 688 F.2d 615, 623 (9th 27 Cir. 1982). “[T]he court may approve [a class settlement] only after a hearing and only on finding 28 that it is fair, reasonable, and adequate . . .” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2). The Court has broad discretion

1 to grant such approval and should do so where the proposed settlement is “fair, adequate, 2 reasonable, and not a product of collusion.” Spence-Ruper v. Scientiae, No. 8:19-cv-01709-DOC-3 ADS, 2021 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 204242, at *4 (C.D. Cal. Sep. 24, 2021) (citing Hanlon v. Chrysler 4 Corp., 150 F.3d 1011, 1026 (9th Cir. 1998)).

5 “To determine whether a settlement agreement meets these standards, a district court must 6 consider a number of factors[.]” Staton v. Boeing Co., 327 F.3d 938, 959 (9th Cir. 2003). These 7 factors include:

8 the strength of plaintiffs’ case; the risk, expense, complexity, and 9 likely duration of further litigation; the risk of maintaining class 10 action status throughout the trial; the amount offered in settlement; 11 the extent of discovery completed, and the stage of the proceedings; 12 the experience and views of counsel; the presence of a governmental 13 participant; and the reaction of the class members to the proposed 14 settlement.

15 Id.; Nwabueze v. AT&T Inc., No. C 09-01529 SI, 2013 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 169270, at *9 (N.D. Cal.
16 Nov. 27, 2013) (Illston, J.) (quoting Churchill Vill., L.L.C. v. GE, 361 F.3d 566, 575 (9th Cir.
17 2004)). “The relative degree of importance to be attached to any particular factor will depend upon 18 and be dictated by the nature of the claims advanced, the types of relief sought, and the unique facts 19 and circumstances presented by each individual case.” Officers for Justice, 688 F.2d at 625. The 20 Court must balance against the continuing risk of litigation and the immediacy and certainty of a 21 substantial recovery. Bellows v. NCO Fin. Sys., No. 3:07-cv-01413-W-AJB, 2008 U.S. Dist.
22 LEXIS 103525, at *17 (S.D. Cal. Dec. 2, 2008).

23 The Ninth Circuit has long supported settlement reached by capable opponents in arm’s-24 length negotiations. In Rodriguez v. West Publishing Corp., the Ninth Circuit expressed the 25 opinion that courts should defer to the “private consensual decision of the [settling] parties.” 563 26 F.3d 948, 965 (9th Cir. 2009) (citing Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1027). The district court must exercise 27 “sound discretion” in approving a settlement. See Class Plaintiffs v. Seattle, 955 F.2d 1268, 1276 28 (9th Cir. 1992); Chavez v. Converse, Inc., No. 15-cv-03746-NC, 2020 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 257679, at *13 (N.D. Cal. Nov. 25, 2020). However, “where, as here, a proposed class settlement has been reached after meaningful discovery, after arm’s length negotiation conducted by capable counsel,

1 it is presumptively fair.” M. Berenson Co. v. Faneuil Hall Marketplace, 671 F. Supp. 819, 822 (D.
 2 Mass. 1987), cited approvingly in Create-A-Card, Inc. v. INTUIT, Inc., No. CV-07-6452 WHA, 3 2009 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 93989, at *14-15 (N.D. Cal. Sep. 22, 2009); see also In re Ferrero Litig., 4 No. 11-CV-00205-H (CAB), 2012 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 15174, at *6 (S.D. Cal. Jan. 23, 2012)
 5 (“Settlements that follow sufficient discovery and genuine arms-length negotiation are presumed 6 fair.”) (citing Nat’l Rural Telecoms. Coop. v. Directv, Inc., 221 F.R.D. 523, 528 (C.D. Cal. 2004)).

7 Applying the relevant factors here confirms that the Settlement should be finally approved, 8 as it was reached only after the Parties had spent over four (4) years litigating this action; 9 participated in two (2) separate mediation sessions before an experienced mediator, Hunter R.
 10 Hughes of Hunter ADR<sup>6</sup>; the Parties conducted extensive formal and informal discovery; and 11 finally, after all of that, the Parties independently accepted a mediator’s proposal. Based on the 12 facts of this case, the extensive time and effort spent in litigating this case, and the likely risks of 13 continuing to litigate this case, Plaintiff and Class Counsel agree that this Settlement is fair, 14 adequate and reasonable. See Kazerounian Decl., ¶ 9; Ibey Decl., ¶ 13; McBride Decl., ¶ 14; 15 Franklin Decl., ¶ 5.

16 1. The Strength of the Lawsuit and the Risk, Expense, Complexity, and Likely Duration of Further Litigation

17 Defendant has raised several challenges to Plaintiff’s claims and putative class claims. This 18 included several affirmative defenses (Dkt. No. 77, ¶¶ 63-68), a motion to dismiss (Dkt. No. 20), 19 a motion for judgment on the pleadings (Dkt. Nos. 95, 96), and an opposition to class certification 20 (Dkt. No. 123). See also, Agr. §§ 1.3, 1.6, 1.8, 1.15. As demonstrated by the above filings, 21 Defendant vigorously defended the case and believes that its defenses have merit. Plaintiff is 22 similarly confident that his putative class claims have merit. Nevertheless, the Parties are aware 23 that further litigation can pose substantial risks and expense to everyone involved. As such, the 24 Parties agree that this settlement eliminates any further risk and expense that would inevitably 25

26 <sup>6</sup> See Jaffe v. Morgan Stanley & Co., No. C 06-3903 TEH, 2008 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 12208, at *52
 27 (N.D. Cal. Feb. 7, 2008) (“This Settlement was reached under the supervision of experienced 28 mediator Hunter Hughes, Esq. Counsel for the parties are experienced class action lawyers who retained Mr. Hughes for his expertise in mediating many complex class actions . . .”); *****hunteradr.com/cv.html (last visited July 12, 2022).

1 result from further litigating this action. Id. §§ 1.14, 1.16.

2 The Settlement here is fair, reasonable, and adequate considering the potential risks and 3 expenses associated with continued litigation, the probability of appeals by either party, the 4 certainty of delay, and the ultimate uncertainty of recovery through continued litigation. As the 5 Ninth Circuit has opined, the very essence of a settlement agreement is compromise, “a yielding 6 of absolutes and an abandoning of highest hopes.” Officers for Justice, 688 F.2d at 624 (internal 7 quotation marks omitted). “Naturally, the agreement reached normally embodies a compromise; 8 in exchange for the saving of costs and elimination of risk, the parties each give up something they 9 might have won had they proceeded with litigation . . .” Id. (quoting United States v. Armour & 10 Co., 402 U.S. 673, 681-82 (1971)) (internal quotation marks omitted).

11 While Class Counsel believe strongly in the merits of the claims brought on behalf of the 12 proposed Class, they also recognize that any case involves risk and that settlements of contested 13 cases are preferred in this circuit. Indeed, some courts in this circuit have denied motion for class 14 certification of CIPA actions, see, e.g., Romero v. Securus Techs., Inc., No. 16cv1283 JM (MDD), 15 2018 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 63084 (S.D. Cal. Apr. 12, 2018), while others have granted class 16 certification of CIPA claims on contested motions, see, e.g., Ades, 2014 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 129689.
 17 Risks would remain regardless of whether Plaintiff were to prevail at trial. See, e.g., Alvarado v.
 18 Fed. Express Corp., 384 F. App'x 585, 590 (9th Cir. 2010) (reversing and remanding for a new 19 trial on punitive liability and damages after the plaintiff was awarded $300,000 in punitive 20 damages); Berkey Photo, Inc. v. Eastman Kodak Co., 603 F.2d 623 (2d Cir. 1979) (reversing $87 21 million judgment after trial).

22 The risks in this action were explained in depth in the Preliminary Approval Motion (Dkt.
 23 No. 154-1, pp. 29-30) and Fee Brief (Dkt. No. 158-1, pp. 24-25). In short, if the action were to 24 proceed without settlement, Plaintiff anticipates that Defendant would continue to challenge 25 Plaintiff's claims through class certification and trial. See Agr. § 1.15. This is evidenced by the 26 extensive motion practice discussed above. See, supra, p. 11:1-4. It is also evidenced, in part, by 27 Defendant's opposition to class certification (prior to settlement), where Defendant challenged the 28 putative class's commonality and predominance as well as Plaintiff's likelihood of satisfying the 1 typicality, adequacy, and superiority requirements of Rule 23 prior to class settlement. See Dkt.

 2 No. 123. That contested motion for class certification was held in abeyance while the Parties 3 revisited mediation in an effort to resolve the dispute. Without a class settlement, and should the 4 withdrawn and contested class certification motion have been granted, the Parties would then need 5 to move toward spending additional time and expense—in an action that has already spanned over 6 four (4) years—preparing for trial. Finally, any decision on the merits is also likely to be appealed, 7 resulting in further delay, uncertainty, and expense.

8 The possibility of losing on a motion for class certification on a contested motion and losing 9 at trial further makes this settlement an acceptable compromise. See Amadeck v. Capital One Fin.
 10 Corp. (In re Capital One Tel. Consumer Prot. Act. Litig.), 80 F. Supp. 3d 781, 791 (N.D. Cal. Feb.
 11 12, 2015) (approving class settlement despite “serious obstacles to class certification”).

12 2. The Amount Offered in Settlement

13 As mentioned above, the Settlement Agreement would require the Defendant to pay into 14 an all-in, non-reversionary Settlement Fund of $1,500,00.00. Agr. § 4.1. Each valid and approved 15 Claim is entitled to a pro rata share of the Settlement Fund, after Administrative Costs, a Service 16 Award to the Class Representative, and attorneys’ fees and costs are deducted. Id. § 4.1.4.

17 As there are 3,518 claims determined to be valid, the individual recovery to Settlement 18 Class Members is approximately $270. See McBride Decl. ¶ 15. This estimated payment is a 19 significant result for Class Members, who only had to take a few minutes to submit a Claim either 20 online or by mail. See, supra, pp. 6-7; Agr. § 7.1(a)-(b). Based on the law of the case (see Dkt.
 21 Noz. 44, 45), at most the Plaintiff and absent class members here could receive an award of 22 $5,000.00 for a violation regardless of the number of recorded calls (Cal. Pen. Code § 637.2), with 23 no express provision for recovery of attorneys’ fees. Ronquillo-Griffin v. Telus Communs., Inc., 24 No. 17cv129 JM (BLM), 2017 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 99577, at *20 (S.D. Cal. June 27, 2017)
 25 (recognizing that CIPA provides for statutory damages of $5,000.00 per violation). Attorneys’ fees 26 would have to be sought under Cal. Civ. Proc. Code § 1021.5, if successful in bringing an action 27 which has resulted in the enforcement of an important right affecting the public interest, among 28 other requirements.

1 The relief afforded to Settlement Class Members here exceeds the relief afforded in many 2 other CIPA class action settlements. See, e.g., Miller v. Hitachi Am., No. CIV 526430, 2014 Cal.
 3 Super. LEXIS 1686 (San Mateo Oct. 17, 2014) (granting preliminary approval of CIPA class 4 action settlement with different settlement classes receiving $20 or $145 per class member)<sup>7</sup>; 5 Couser v. Dish One Satellite, LLC, No. RIC 1603185 (Sup. Ct. Riverside May 3, 2019) (finally 6 approved CIPA class action settlements involving 360 settlement class members where the 7 estimated recovery at a 100% claims rate was $211; and the actual recovery was $276 per valid 8 claimant) [Dkt. No. 158-1, 10:18-21].<sup>8</sup> Also, Class Counsel have prepared a non-exhaustive matrix 9 of several other CIPA settlements which further demonstrate that appropriateness and adequacy of 10 the individual Settlement Class Member recovery here of approximately $270 per valid claimant.
 11 See Exhibit B to Declaration of Abbas Kazeronian (reflecting individual claimant recoveries 12 between $10.82 and 3,703.64).

13 As was mentioned by the Parties during the preliminary approval hearing, that this 14 Settlement essentially involves instances of alleged mistakes<sup>9</sup> by Defendant in terms of not 15 providing a class recording disclosures some of the time during the Class Period, which 16 distinguishes the facts from some CIPA class action settlements where no recording disclosure 17 was given at all (e.g., Ronquillo-Griffin v. TransUnion Rental Screening Solutions, Inc.) [Dkt. No.
 18 158-1, p. 10]. The Settlement here is more akin to the facts in Couser v. Dish One Satellite, where 19 a technical glitch cause an automated recording disclosure not to play on incoming calls for a 3-

20 <sup>7</sup> The two sub-classes received anywhere from $126.21 to $1,254.26 per class member after final 21 approval.

22 <sup>8</sup> It is worth noting that the estimated individual recovery at the time of preliminary approval at 23 an 100% claims rate was approximately $25.63 (Dkt. No. 154-1, 5:19-20). This is much higher 24 than in several other CIPA cases. See e.g., Cohorst v. BRE Properties, Inc., No. 10-cv-2666 JM, 25 2012 WL 153754, Dkt. Nos. 101, 109 (S.D. Cal. 2012) ($5.5 million settlement for approximately 26 1,170,584 potential class members, or $4.70 per person); McCabe v. Six Continents Hotels, Inc., 27 No. 12-cv-04818, 2015 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 85084, at *27-29 (N.D. Cal. June 30, 2015) (collecting 28 cases approving CIPA settlements of $1-$7.50 per class member).

<sup>9</sup> As argued in Plaintiff's motion for class certification before it was withdrawn due to settlement, Defendant did not provide a call recording disclosure approximately 10.7% of the time as it concerned calls on November 23, 2015. Dkt. No. 118-1, p. 2.

1 month period, as explained in the Fee Brief at pp. 10-11. The size of the settlement class has also 2 frequently influenced the amount of individual class member recovery, wherein settlements with 3 a larger class size tend to have smaller individual recoveries. Thus, the estimated recovery provided 4 by this settlement here is much greater than in many other finally approved CIPA class action 5 settlements and is fair and adequate based on the risks and facts of the present case.

6 It is also well-settled that a proposed settlement may be accepted where the recovery 7 represents a fraction of the maximum potential recovery. See Nat'l Rural Telecoms. Coop., 221 8 F.R.D. at 528 (“well settled law that a proposed settlement may be accepted even though it amounts 9 to only a fraction of the potential recovery”); See Jaffe, 2008 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 12208, at *29 (“The 10 settlement amount could undoubtedly be greater, but it is not obviously deficient, and a sizeable 11 discount is to be expected in exchange for avoiding the uncertainties, risks, and costs that come 12 with litigating a case to trial.”).

13 Such settlement results may also benefit the general public from a potential deterrent effect 14 on potential future CIPA violations. See David R. Hodas, Enforcement of Environmental Law in 15 A Triangular Federal System: Can Three Not Be A Crowd When Enforcement Authority Is Shared
 16 by the United States, the States, and Their Citizens?, 54 Md. L. Rev. 1552, 1598 n.188 (1995)

 18 placing them at a competitive disadvantage. This creates a disincentive for compliance.”).

19 3. Class Members were Provided with the Best Notice Practicable, 20 Affording Them an Opportunity to Determine Whether to Participate 21 in the Settlement

22 Rule 23(c)(2)(B) provides that, in any case certified under Rule 23(b)(3) the court must 23 direct to class members the “best notice that is practicable under the circumstances[.]” Rule 24 23(c)(2)(B) does not require “actual notice” or that notice be “actually received[.]” Silber v.
Mabon, 18 F.3d 1449, 1454 (9th Cir. 1994).

25 According to the Administrator, there was a direct mail notice reach of approximately 26 94.9% of the estimated 37,031 Settlement Class Members who were mailed Class Notice (noticed 27 was mailed to 35,174 persons on the Settlement Class Member list), after updating records based 28 on the NCOA database (see Admin. Decl. ¶ 7), which easily satisfies due process. See Romero v.

1 Producers Dairy Foods, Inc., 235 F.R.D. 474, 492-93 (E.D. Cal. 2006) (“First class mail is 2 ordinarily sufficient to notify class members who have been identified”); Morey v. Louis Vuitton
 3 N. Am. Inc., No. 11cv1517 WQH (BLM), 2014 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 3331, at *11-12 (S.D. Cal. Jan.
 4 9, 2014) (finding that mail and email notice “fully complied with due process principles”); Spears 5 v. First Am. Eapraseit, No. 5-08-CV-00868, 2015 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 58530, at *32-34 (N.D. Cal.
 6 Apr. 27, 2015) (finally approving settlement which provided for class notice via direct mail after 7 updated addresses through the NCOA database, a settlement website and IVR phone line).
 8 However, if that were not enough, notice was also provided through print publication and detailed 9 notice on the Settlement Website with a notice reach of at least 70% for the publication notice 10 alone. See Admin. Decl. ¶ 8.

11 There is typically a 3-5% claims rate in consumer class actions, including those involving 12 CIPA claims. See, e.g., Ferrington v. McAfee, Inc., 2012 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 49160, at *13 (N.D.
 13 Cal. Apr. 6, 2012) (“[T]he prevailing rule of thumb with respect to consumer class actions is [a 14 claims rate of] 3-5 percent.”); Forcellati v. Hyland’s Inc., No.12-cv-1983, 2014 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 15 50600, at *17 (C.D. Cal. Apr. 9, 2014) (same); Mount v. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., BC395959 (Cal.
 16 Super. Ct. Aug. 13, 2014) (granting final approval of a CIPA class action settlement with a 4.2% 17 claims rate); Zaw v. Nelnet Business Solutions, Inc., No. 3:12-cv-05788-RS, Dkt. No. 39 (N.D.
 18 Cal. Dec. 1, 2014) (granting final approval of CIPA class settlement with a 1.8% claims rate).
 19 Here, the valid claims rate of approximately 9.50% (3,518 divided by 37,031), is a strong 20 indication of general approval of the Settlement by the Settlement Class Members. It is also in line 21 with the up to 10% claims rate estimate given by Plaintiff’s counsel.

22 4. The Extent of Discovery Completed

23 The Parties conducted substantial discovery, including multiple rounds of formal written 24 discovery (e.g., five sets of requests for production of documents and four sets of special 25 interrogatories), Plaintiff’s deposition, seven separate depositions of Defendant’s personnel, two 26 subpoenas, and confirmatory discovery following the Parties’ September 7, 2021, mediation 27 session (i.e., Defendant’s confirmatory declaration as to the class size and the process used to 28 identify Settlement Class Members). [Ibey Decl., ¶ 7.] With all this discovery completed, the

1 litigation has reached a point where both parties had “a clear view of the strengths and weaknesses 2 of their cases.” Schuchardt v. Law Office of Rory W. Clark, 314 F.R.D. 673, 685 (N.D. Cal. 2016)
 3 (internal quotation marks omitted). Thus, the Parties have exchanged more than enough 4 information to make an informed decision about settlement. See Linney v. Cellular Alaska P’ship, 5 151 F.3d 1234, 1239 (9th Cir. 1988) (“In the context of class action settlements, ‘formal discovery 6 is not a necessary ticket to the bargaining table where the parties have sufficient information to 7 make an informed decision about settlement.’”).

8 5. The Experience and Views of Counsel

9 While the Court should not blindly follow counsel’s recommendations, “[t]he 10 recommendations of plaintiff’s counsel should be given a presumption of reasonableness.” Boyd 11 v. Bechtel Corp., 485 F. Supp. 610, 622 (N.D. Cal. 1979). The presumption of reasonableness in 12 this action is fully warranted because the settlement was the product of arm’s-length negotiations 13 by capable, experienced counsel who have “an intimate familiarity with [the] lawsuit after 14 spending years in litigation[.]” Id.; see also Ellis v. Naval Air Rework Facility, 87 F.R.D. 15, 18 15 (N.D. Cal. 1980) (“that experienced counsel involved in the case approved the settlement after 16 hard-fought negotiations is entitled to considerable weight”); 2 Newberg on Class Actions § 11.24 17 (4th Ed. & Supp. 2002); Manual for Complex Lit., Fourth § 30.42.

18 It is the judgment of Class Counsel experienced in CIPA class action litigation that this 19 settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate, benefiting all Settlement Class Members who 20 submitted valid Claims. See Kazerounian Decl., ¶¶ 9-10; Ibey Decl., ¶ 13; McBride Decl., ¶ 14.
 21 Indeed, as demonstrated by their accompanying declarations, Class Counsel are highly 22 experienced consumer class action lawyers who have been recognized for their knowledge and 23 experience in complex consumer class action litigation. See, e.g., Dkt. Nos. 154-2, ¶¶ 74-75; 158-24 2, ¶¶ 26-27. Thus, Class Counsel now unequivocally assert that the Settlement should be finally 25 approved by this Court. Kazerounian Decl., ¶ 10; Ibey Decl., ¶ 13; McBride Decl., ¶ 14.

26 6. Positive Reaction of Settlement Class Members

27 “It is established that the absence of a large number of objections to a proposed class action 28 settlement raises a strong presumption that the terms of a proposed class settlement action are

1 favorable to the class members.” Nat’l Rural Telecoms. Coop., 221 F.R.D. at 529 (citations 2 omitted). The absence of any objections or requests for exclusion here (Admin. Decl. ¶ 14) is an 3 important factor in evaluating the fairness, reasonableness, and adequacy of settlement; it also 4 supports approval of the settlement here. See Couser v. Comenity Bank, 125 F. Supp. 3d 1034, 5 1044 (S.D. Cal. 2015) (“Upon considering the high rate of Class Member claims and the relatively 6 low number of requests for exclusion, the Court finds the reaction of the Class to the Settlement
 7 favors approval of . . . Settlement.”); Medieros v. HSBC Card Servs., No. CV 15-09093 JVS
 8 (AFMx), 2017 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 178484, at *6 (C.D. Cal. Oct. 23, 2017) (granting final approval 9 of a CIPA settlement where there were only 7 opt-outs and 1 objection). The fact that there has 10 been no resistance to the Settlement, the high valid claims rate of over 10% for a consumer class 11 action case, and the Class Representative supports the final approval of the settlement (Franklin 12 Decl., ¶ 5), further supports final approval of this settlement.

13 VII. POTENTIAL CY PRES RECIPIENTS OF UNCLAIMS FUNDS

14 Consistent with the Settlement Agreement’s terms, Plaintiff requests that funds remaining 15 in the Settlement Fund after any subsequent distributions (as administratively feasible) be awarded 16 to the proposed cy pres recipients, the National Consumer Law Center and New Media Rights, 17 equally. Agr. § 4.1.6.

18 The National Consumer Law Center, founded in 1969, is a nonprofit organization that 19 works for consumer justice and economic security for low-income and disadvantaged individuals, 20 including the elderly.<sup>10</sup> [See Exhibit C to Kazerounian Decl., ¶ 13.] New Media Rights, founded 21 in 2006, is a program of the California Western School of Law offering pro bono preventative 22 privacy related legal services for consumers, nonprofits, technology entrepreneurs, and creators.<sup>11</sup>

23 Class Counsel believe that the proposed cy pres recipients are appropriate considering the 24 nature of this suit, the objectives underlying the CIPA, and the interests of absent class members, 25 including their geographic diversity. See Nachshin v. AOL, LLC, 663 F.3d 1034, 1040 (9th Cir.
 26 2011). Should a cy pres distribution be needed, Class Counsel intend file a formal motion with the

1 Court indicating the amount to be distributed and discussing, in more depth, the proposed cy pres 2 recipients' respective qualifications to receive such distribution.

3 VIII. CONCLUSION

4 In conclusion, the Parties have reached this Settlement following good and contentious 5 negotiations, with the assistance of an experienced mediator. The settlement is fair, reasonable, 6 and adequate for Settlement Class Members who were afforded notice that complies with the 7 requirements of Rule 23 and due process.

8 For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests the Court:

- 9
- 10 • Grant final approval of the proposed settlement;
  - 11 • Order payment from the Settlement Fund in compliance with the Court's Preliminary Approval order and the Agreement;
  - 12 • Grant the Motion for Attorneys' Fees, Costs and Service Award;
  - 13 • Enter the proposed final approval order submitted herewith;
  - 14 • Enter the proposed Final Judgment submitted herewith; and
  - 15 • Retain continuing jurisdiction over the implementation, interpretation, administration, and 16 consummation of the settlement.
